FREE COUNTY SHRED DAY

On Saturday, June 9, 2018 from 9:00 am to 12 Noon at the Swine Barn at Darke County Fairgrounds, the Darke County Solid Waste District will partner with Mercer Savings Bank to hold a "FREE" County Shred Day. This event will allow you to help protect you and your family from identity theft. Because this is a FREE event, each household or business will be limited to 10-1 cu. ft. boxes. All documents will be shredded on-site. A certificate of destruction is available upon request.

What should you shred? Old taxes, bank statements, pay stubs, checkbooks, insurance policy info, medical information, legal files, utility bills, credit card statements, receipts, invoices, pre-approved credit card offers, investment records, etc.

For more information or questions concerning the County Shred Day, contact Krista or Melissa at the Darke County Solid Waste District, 937-547-0827.
